Jurisdiction and Dispute

It is agreed that these terms of use are governed by the laws of the UAE. Any action, suit, or other legal proceeding commenced to resolve any matter arising under or relating to this website shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts in UAE. In the event of a dispute between parties under these Terms, no right of action shall arise until parties have used their reasonable efforts to settle any claims in dispute between them. Such effort shall include mutual discussions or negotiation personally or through a legal representative. The duration of such discussion shall be 2 calendar weeks, failing which either party shall have the right to approach the appropriate court for a determination of his/hers/its rights. Parties shall commit to mutual discussions and negotiation in good faith. These Terms shall be construed under and governed by the laws of the UAE, without regard to its conflict of law provisions and shall be adjudicated by state or federal courts sitting in the UAE. Users hereby expressly consent to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts located in the UAE for any lawsuit filed there against him/her by Institutional Cryptos arising from or relating to these Terms, and agree that such courts shall be the sole and exclusive venue for any such lawsuits (except with respect to post-judgment enforcement proceedings) filed by either Party in regard to claims or actions arising from or relating to these Terms; provided, however, that nothing shall restrict Institutional Cryptos from bringing a lawsuit in another venue to the extent Institutional Cryptos is also bringing a lawsuit against a third party who is not subject to jurisdiction in UAE.

Risk Disclaimer

Please be fully aware of the risks and costs associated with trading financial assets. Trading cryptocurrency involves high risk and is not suitable for every investor. The potential exists to lose 100% of any investment. Institutional Cryptos recommends that you perform your own independent research before investing. We will not be held liable for any losses incurred as a result of your financial decisions.
